

St. Bernard de Clairvaux Church

MEMORARE OF ST. BERNARD

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee do I stand sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

My dear brothers and sisters:

Normal. I don't know about you but even though we have been living with the new health and safety precautions now for a while and I've heard it referred to as the 'new normal' that will exist for some months to come, it still does not feel normal to me.

Now, normal is an interesting word, with multiple meanings. At its most basic normal is statistical, it is a description of the norm, or what everyone is doing and what one typically should expect. So, in one sense everyone taking the precautions is normal and that's a good thing as we seek to show love for each other by doing what we can to keep them safe, especially the most vulnerable in our society.

Normal, however, can also be used to characterize that which is good or the way things should be. In that regard there is nothing normal about this: about having to keep our distance from those we love or from our friends and parish communities, not being able to gather in the many ways we can celebrate our life or having to put restrictions on the gathering of our parish family. In the midst of this we see the social strife violence and injustice going on around us, and I don't know about you but I don't think we should ever see that as "normal".

Sometimes, we can wonder where God is, in the midst, of this or why our problems will not come to an end. Certainly it is a time of the cross collectively. However, the Lord did not promise us life without the cross or that the seas of life will always be smooth. Rather, He promised that with His grace, in union with Him we will be able to ride through the stormy seas of life to a better life, where we may put these troubles behind us as a distant memory. This is true with what is going on during the pandemic but in an ultimate sense in the perfection of the world when Christ will come again. This is our hope. Our hope is in Him and we know that He will not disappoint because we know Him; we know and feel Him in our worship, in our prayers and in the acts of charity that we do. Our Lord has never left us and Sheppard's us even still.

For now, we are still, in the midst, of the storm, as it were, so let us strive to unite ourselves with the Lord and with each other with firm faith, ardent hope, abundant charity and with justice and innocence of heart. The Lord is with us, and with Him we will get back to normal in every sense of the word.

I hope to see you soon

Fr. Boniface

Pontifical Collection

for the Custody of the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection in support of the Holy Land, usually collected on Good Friday, was cancelled when churches were closed due to the pandemic.

Pope Francis has requested that it be taken up on Sunday the 13th of September – a date close to that of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. This feast celebrates Christ's saving work and also reminds us of faithful Christian pilgrims, like St. Helen when she found the relics of the Holy Cross in the 4th century, who have committed themselves to preserving the holy sites as places of worship that sustain our Christian culture and history of salvation.
