*Oh Come
Let us Adore Him*

This year, my brother said that there was no point for me to buy the siblings anything and to just get some gifts for my nephews and nieces. And you know, that made me feel sad. I know it's not just about the giving and receiving of material things; it's really about the love and concern that the gifts represent. It really is true, giving of gifts is just as enjoyable as receiving them. (So much to my brother's surprise and annoyance that I did not follow his orders. I got him a gift!)

Christmas cannot be explained without love. It was out of Love and not necessity that Jesus, second person of the Blessed Trinity came down from Heaven and was incarnate, literally He took on flesh, so as to be with us, teach and heal us and most importantly to save us from our sins. It is out of love that Mary accepted and cherished Him with love beyond all telling and it was out of love that the wise men came bearing gifts as if to a king, for so indeed He was. The great King of Heaven and Earth but most importantly the king of our hearts.

And like the wise men every year we too, to make a choice to leave our ordinary routines and all the things we normally do at Christmas to come to the Nativity's manger and be with the Christ child, and to bring to Him the gift of our worship and adoration, of our very heart. In this our love is complete. In this we are filled with the peace and joy of the Christmas season: it is not a vague Christmas spirit that we experience but it is the love of the Lord. Someone once asked me what I think it would be like to be with Jesus and honestly, I think it would be like having that presence of the Lord we feel at Christmas but having it in a more glorious and direct way. Filled with this love let us share it with our family, with our parishioners and all so that reaching its fullness, our joy may be complete.

Merry Christmas! And may God bless you all!!

Fr. Boniface

P.S. I also hope you do get at least one gift this Christmas!

*A tutte le famiglie della nostra
comunita' parrocchiale,
Tanti e tanti auguri
per un felicissimo e Santo Natale*

MARY, is often associated with mercy and rightly so. As Jesus lay in the Manger with no more than the breath of the donkey and ox to keep Him warm, Mary wanted to alleviate all that caused the Blessed Lord harm and to comfort Him. Whenever we are moved to do the same with those we see, that is true mercy in action.

Mary also held up Her Divine Son to the Wise Men showing Him to them and to all who come seeking God. In this way, Mary acts as the perfect model and Mother of the Church and all of us Her children, both showing Christ to all who come to us, so that they may know and Love Him and in imitation of our Blessed Saviour to show mercy to them as well. In this way, Mary fulfills the two great laws of Christ: to Love God in all our strength, mind and soul and to Love our neighbour as ourselves.

As a true disciple of her Blessed Son she stays close to Him throughout her life and this finds her standing at the foot of the cross. At that moment, Jesus gave us Mary as our Mother too, after he had been nailed to the cross, He addressed her in these words "women behold your Son" then he said to John "behold your mother". Jesus looks at us one by one; behold your mother, he says. John took her into his home, received her lovingly and cared for her with the greatest respect. He brought Mary into his home, into his life. Spiritual writers have seen words of the Gospel as an invitation to all Christians to bring Mary into their lives.

Our Lady, close to her Son, fulfills her mission as mother of all by interceding continually for them. On this Solemnity of Our Lady, we begin the new year. Truly there could not be a better start of the year and all the days of our life, then being very close to Mary. With the confidence of children, we go to her, so that she may help us to live holiness every day of the year.

CHRISTMAS REFLECTIONS

“He was created of a mother whom he created.

He was carried by hands that he formed.

He cried in the manger in wordless infancy.

He the word without whom all human elegance is mute.”
St. Augustine

“The grace which was revealed in our world is Jesus...
He has entered our history; He has shared our journey.
He came to free us from darkness and to grant us light.
In Him was revealed the grace, the mercy and the love of the Father.”
Pope Francis
