

St. Bernard de Clairvaux Church

MEMORARE OF ST. BERNARD

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee do I stand sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

MASS MINUTES - WEEK 14 LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST
THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYERS;

FATHER'S DAY*

The First Eucharistic Prayer, also known as the Roman Canon was the only one in use in the Roman Rite before the Second Vatican Council. This Eucharistic Prayer comes down to us almost exactly the same as it was when St. Ambrose of Milan prayed it in the fourth century and referred to it as already of long use in the Church in Rome: (Ambrose De Sacramentis) A distinctive characteristic of the Roman Canon is the litany of Roman martyrs and other martyrs venerated in Rome from the early persecutions of the Church. This gives the prayer its name; Canon is Greek for a list, namely the "list" of martyrs invoked at Rome.

The Church in Rome prayed to the saints who died for her in the Eucharistic Prayer very fittingly because the martyrs participate in the Heavenly Liturgy that the Church on earth participates in through the Holy Mass. The use of the same Eucharistic Prayer as that used by the Church in Rome expresses very strongly unity with and fidelity to the Pope.

The Second Eucharist Prayer also has ancient but less certain origins. The text of the prayer itself is derived from the third century work The Apostolic Tradition, attributed to St. Hipolytus of Rome. It was not a commonly used Eucharistic Prayer in the Church in the West before the Second Vatican Council.

The Third Eucharistic Prayer is not ancient at all but has in fact been composed since the Second Vatican Council in the 1960's. It is modeled on the Roman Canon while taking elements from other Eucharistic Prayers including those of other Rites within the Church.

The Fourth Eucharistic Prayer is modeled on that of St. Basil who lived in the 6th Century. It is very noticeably different in parts from the other Eucharistic Prayers particularly by its extended narration of salvation history. Other Eucharistic Prayers used only when warranted are also currently included in the Roman Missal. There are two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation mostly used in Advent and Lent, there are two for uses with children and more recently for others written in Switzerland, obviously called the Swiss Canons, have also been approved for use at Masses when we intercede with God for specific reasons, such as, praying in times of trial or in thanksgiving for God's goodness and mercy to us.

God our Father,

*We praise you and bless you for the life
you have given us through your saving love, Revealed in Jesus your Son.*

*Through Christ you have revealed yourself
As a loving father who provides for us all.*

*Look with love upon our father
And bless him with our love.*

Deepen his love for his wife and family and make us one in love with all your holy people as we proclaim your mighty deeds and sing your praises

We offer you praise and glory through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

*Oggi siamo chiamati a rendere
omaggio all'amore,
alla dedizione, al sacrificio dei nostri papa',
questi oscuri eroi delle nostre famiglie
e della nostra societa'.*

*Permettete, cari papa',
che almeno una volta l'anno vi diciamo*

"GRAZIE!"

per tutto cio' che fate e siete per tutti noi.
