

St. Bernard de Clairvaux Church

MEMORARE OF ST. BERNARD

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee do I stand sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

MASS MINUTES - WEEK 15
LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST
THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER
THE EPICLESIS

The Epiclesis is the part of the Mass when the priest asks that the Holy Spirit sanctify the offerings of bread and wine making them into the Body and Blood of Christ. The priest holds his hands over the offerings while he prays the words of the Epiclesis. By the words and the gesture, the priest begins the Consecration, the act through which the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. A server rings a bell at this point to indicate to the faithful that the consecration is taking place.

While the Church has not stated explicitly at what moment the bread and wine cease to be bread and wine and become Christ, we traditionally believe that the change takes place during the Narrative of Institution. The words used by Christ at the Last Supper repeated at the Eucharistic Prayer. St. Ambrose of Milan, placed the moment of the substantial change in the gifts at this: Ambrose De Sacramentis.

The Epiclesis and the Narrative of Institution comprise the most important time of the Consecration, and indeed the whole Mass. So that when the priest holds up the Eucharist it no longer is the bread and wine but the Most Sacred Body and Most Precious blood. Again, the bells are rung as Christ is now present at Mass in a substantial way and we are called to be with Him, see Him and adore Him.
